CSR Names Robert Garcia to Head Campbell Office

San Jose, California – May 27, 2011 – CSR Real Estate Services has appointed Robert Garcia to head the operations of their recently acquired Campbell office located at 22 South Second Street.

Garcia brings 13 years of experience in real estate and is invaluable when it comes to up-to-date knowledge of changing laws and market conditions. He had past management experience at ReMax and Alterra before joining CSR in 2010. Garcia still aggressively transacts real estate deals and is in the trenches with his agents. His coaching and leadership come from current, real life experiences.

Steve Bonafede, CEO, said, “Robert is well regarded in the industry and was an obvious choice for us when this opportunity presented itself. He is a leader and will help his team become successful.”

“I am excited by this opportunity to take CSR’s successful business model to Campbell. This will translate into better producing agents and better service to our Campbell clients,” said Garcia. Strategic growth, service to the client, and bringing his real estate agent’s professionalism to optimal levels, is at the top of Garcia’s primary objectives.
